

ROMANS
the GOSPEL
Chapter 1 Verse 1

In what three ways does Paul identify himself in Romans 1:1?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Do you truly see yourself as Christ's slave? Why or why not?

Why do we rebel at the thought of being a slave?

What other biblical people considered themselves slaves of God?

Why does Paul regard his being a slave to Christ as his highest virtue?

Is Jesus your exclusive Master because He bought you with His blood?

Do you view your daily life as not your own, but belonging to Jesus, to serve Him?

What does this commitment look like in the course of your daily life?

How do you submit to Jesus in the various spheres of your life (work, church, marriage, family, etc.)?

At what time were you set apart for the gospel?

Do you view your life in this way, that you're set apart for the gospel of God?

How does this impact what you think, say, & do?

How does this mentality affect you at work, home, school, etc.?

Does your life revolve around getting people the good news & then helping them live out that good news?

Do you go to work or school with a sense of urgency to share the gospel of God?

Are you strategically looking for ways to help others grow in their faith?

Has God directed you to your vocation and present ministry in the church? Have you sought Him & His will in this? Is there anything standing in the way of your going where He leads?

Has your heart been changed by personally experiencing God's grace in Jesus' death & resurrection on your behalf?
