

Reflection Questions: How much of a sinner am I? Do I view my sinfulness as less than others? Why? Are there those that I think don't deserve to be saved? If so, what does this say about me? How did Jesus interact with the unsaved? How do I interact with them?

How can we pray for one another and our church this week?

Quotes to Ponder

The scandal of grace is that God saves those who do not deserve it.

John MacArthur

Self-righteousness will crush your seeking and your celebration of grace because grace is only ever exciting to a sinner.

If you would live on earth for another ten-thousand years, and you would continue to follow Christ, you would need His grace that next day as much as you needed it the first day you believed.

Paul David Tripp

The first link between my soul and Christ is not my goodness, but my badness; not my merit, but my misery; not my standing, but my falling; not my riches, but my need.

R. Kent Hughes

Oh, let us beware of self-righteousness. Open sin kills thousands of souls. Self-righteousness kills its tens of thousands... Give up your secret pride. Cast away your vain ideas of your own goodness. Be thankful if you have any grace, but never glory in it for a moment. Work for God and Christ with heart and soul and mind and strength, but never dream for a second of placing confidence in any work of your own.

J.C. Ryle

*Come, ye weary, heavy laden, Bruised and broken by the fall;
If you tarry 'til you're better, You will never come at all.
Not the righteous, not the righteous; Sinners Jesus came to call.*

Joseph Hart
