

Reflection Questions: How am I showing my submission to Jesus' Lordship today? Am I growing in holiness? How do I know? Do my beliefs of Jesus come from Scripture? Do they impact the way I live? How does the knowledge that Jesus is currently interceding for me encourage me?

How can we pray for one another and our church this week?

Psalm 110

1. Jesus the King (1-3)

Quotes to Ponder

How condescending on Jehovah's part to permit a mortal ear to hear, and a human pen to record His secret converse with His co-equal Son! How greatly should we prize the revelation of His private and solemn discourse with the Son, herein made public for the refreshing of His people!

His work is done, and He may sit; it is well done, and He may sit at His right hand; it will have grand results, and He may therefore quietly wait to see the complete victory which is certain to follow.

Charles Spurgeon

His priesthood is not, like that of Aaron, figurative, successive, and transient, but real and effectual, fixed and incommunicable, eternal and unchangeable.

George Horne

Psalm 110 is one of the fullest and most compendious prophecies of the person and offices of Christ in the whole Old Testament.

Edward Reynolds

The world is in desperate need of a spiritual church using spiritual weapons to fight a spiritual war, under the spiritual reign of Christ.

Walter Chantry

What God promised in the Old Testament concerning His Son has been fulfilled in the New Testament.

Donald Williams

A real Christian who believes should do two things: dance, out of sheer delight; and fight, out of the sense of victory.

G.K. Chesterton

2. Jesus the Priest (4)

3. Jesus the Warrior and Judge (5-7)
