

16. How does Romans 8:29-30 give assurance of our salvation?

17. What is the answer to Paul's question in Romans 8:35?

18. What is your favorite truth from Romans 8? Why?

Reflection Questions: What is my life producing for God? If my life is a garden, what kind of fruit do people find? The fruit of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, fruitfulness, & self control? Or do they find the weeds of bitterness, anger, gossip, disobedience, slander, arrogance, pride, & unbelief?

How can we pray for one another and our church this week?

Quotes to Ponder

You cannot make men good by law.

C. S. Lewis

When sin is your burden, Christ will be your delight.

Thomas Watson

Law was given that grace might be sought, grace was given that the law might be fulfilled.

Augustine

A man may easier see without eyes, speak without a tongue, than truly mortify one sin without the Spirit.

John Owen

God is pouring us into the mold of Christ's perfect greatness.

Timothy Keller

*Jesus chose to die. He planned to die. He embraced death for you.
He didn't stumble in front of the divine bullet meant for you;
He stepped in front of it.*

John Piper
