Reflection Questions: Where do I usually look for my help? What is the source of my protection? If it is not God, why not? Does my confidence, trust, and faith truly rest in Him? How can I improve in this area?

How can we pray for one another and our church this week?

1. Our Need for Help (1-2)

Quotes to Ponder

Our soul is kept from the dominion of sin, the infection of err, the crush of despondency, the puffing up of pride; kept from the world, the flesh, and the devil; kept for holier and greater things; kept in the love of God; kept unto the eternal kingdom and glory.

The purposes of God; the divine attributes; the immutable promises; the covenant, ordered in all things and sure; the providence, predestination, and proved faithfulness of the Lord—these are the hills to which we must lift our eyes, and from these our help must come.

Charles Spurgeon

Everything in the heavens and on the earth bears witness to the great Creator who is also our heavenly Father, so why should we fear? Warren Wiersbe

Good men must be very unbelieving to make it necessary for the Almighty so often to assure them of His preserving and protecting care as He does no less than six times in this psalm. William Plummer

> None of us are safe until we take refuge in God. Samuel Cox

Because God controls the universe, chance is ruled out, and because it is God who controls the universe, fate is ruled out also. Gerald Williamson

In His providence, God knows how much joy and sorrow, how much pleasure and pain, how much prosperity and poverty is proper for His child. He knows the correct balance of sunshine and storm, the precise mixture of darkness and light it takes to perfect a son. Richard Halverson 2. The Nature of Our Help (3-8)

A. He Keeps Us (3-4)

B. He Protects Us (5-6)

C. He Preserves Us (7-8)
