

How can we pray for one another and our church this week?

Quotes to Ponder

We are walkers through the city of this world, and we are often called to go out into its darkness; let us never venture there without the light-giving Word, lest we slip with our feet. Each man should use the Word of God personally, practically, and habitually, that he may see his way, and see what lies in it. When darkness settles down upon all around me, the Word of the Lord, like a flaming torch, reveals my way.

One of the most practical benefits of Holy Writ is guidance in the acts of daily life; it is not sent to astound us with its brilliance, but to guide us by its instruction.

Charles Spurgeon

The Word will be a lamp to you only if you follow it nonbegrudgingly even when you don't like what it shows you.

Timothy Keller

Will we hold our lives in our hands and refuse to forget God's Word or will we hold God's Word in our hands loosely and refuse to let go of our lives?

J. Ligon Duncan

God shall be my hope, my stay, my guide, and lantern to my feet.

William Shakespeare

Oh! Save me from ever turning my face away from the path, into which Your Word would guide me. Enable me to avail myself of its light, in the constant exercise of faith, prudence, and simplicity.

Precious Bible: What a treasure! The testimonies of God—the declaration of His will in doctrine—obligation—and privilege!

Charles Bridges

God's Word has counsel for every difficulty, comfort in every trouble, guidance in all perplexity. Men go wrong, not from want of knowledge of the right, but from unwillingness to follow the right.

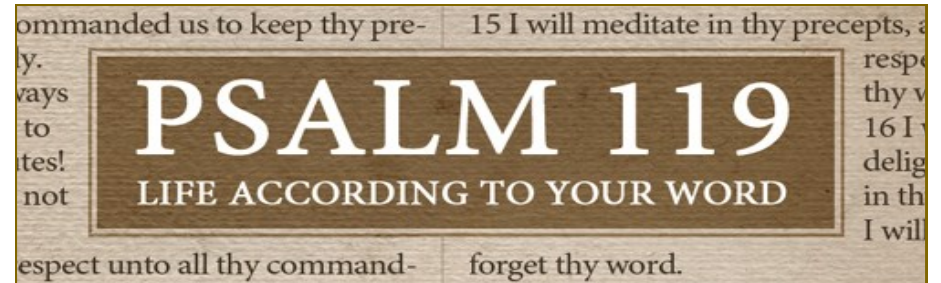

H.D.M. Spence-Jones

If a man can leave nothing to his child but a Bible, in that he bequeaths him the greatest treasure in the universe.

Adam Clarke

If we are going to ... remain on the right path spiritually, we are going to have to study God's Word to get our priorities straight and be reminded that it is far more important to be approved by God than by other people.

James Montgomery Boice
