

Reflection Questions: How has the power of Christ's resurrection changed me? What practices has He called me to leave behind? Have I done so? What new practices does He want me to begin? Have I done so? Am I currently experiencing the power of Christ's resurrection in my life today? If not, why not?

How can we pray for one another and our church today?

Quotes to Ponder

Without the resurrection of Christ, Christ's death alone has no atoning, redemptive, or liberating effect in relation to human sin.

Anthony C. Thiselton

Their can be no salvation from sin unless there is a living Savior: this explains the emphasis laid by the apostle on the resurrection. But the Living One can only be a Savior because He has died: this explains the emphasis laid on the Cross.

James Denney

For what was necessitated by our sin was, in the first place, Christ's atoning death, and yet, had His death not been followed by His resurrection, it would not have been God's mighty deed for our justification.

C.E.B. Cranfield

In His life, Christ is an example, showing us how to live; in His death, He is a sacrifice, satisfying for our sins; in His resurrection, a conqueror; in His ascension, a king; in His intercession, a high priest.

Martin Luther

We today live between two Easters, the Easter when Christ arose and the Easter when we rise.

Eric Sauer

Brethren, such is the evidencing power of the resurrection of Christ, that when every other argument fails your faith, you may find safe anchorage in this assured fact. The current of doubt may bear you towards the rocks of mistrust. But when your anchor finds no other hold, it may grip the fact of the resurrection of Christ from the dead.

Charles Spurgeon
