

16. What principles can we draw from this passage (Mark 6:7-13) that apply to us today?

Reflection Questions: Am I being obedient to being sent by Jesus? Do I depend upon God for everything or do I rely on my own resources and finances? How can I improve in this area? Am I facing rejection because I identify and proclaim Jesus in my words and deeds?

How can we pray for one another and our church this week?

Quotes to Ponder

Repentance means that you realize that you are a guilty, vile sinner in the presence of God, that you deserve the wrath and punishment of God, that you are Hell-bound. You renounce the world whatever the cost, the world in its mind and outlook as well as its practice. You deny yourself, and take up the cross and go after Christ. Your nearest and dearest, and the whole world, may call you a fool, or say you have religious mania. You may have to suffer financially—but it makes no difference. That is repentance.

Martyn Lloyd-Jones

Do not pray for tasks equal to your powers, pray for powers equal to your tasks.

Philip Brooks

No one will take seriously messengers who claim to bring an urgent message of life and death when it becomes evident that their first concern is to secure their own ease.

David E. Garland

*When it comes to world missions, there are only three kinds of people:
goers, senders, and the disobedient.*

John Piper

Every Christian is either a missionary or an imposter.
