

14. How is verse 16 the natural result of the preceding verses?

Reflection Questions: The Word of God should dwell in me richly (Colossians 3:16). Does it? Is there something that God is calling me to do right now to deepen my interaction with His Word?

How can we pray for one another and our church this week?

Quotes to Ponder

The path of purity is that of caution conditioned by the Word of God.

G. Campbell Morgan

As God's Word spreads from our heads to our hearts, sin loses its power over us.

Julie Ackerman Link

You must take heed to your daily life as well as study your Bible, and you must study your Bible that you may take heed to your daily life. With the greatest care a man will go astray if his map misleads him; but with the most accurate map he will still lose his road if he does not take heed to it.

The man of God exerts himself, but does not trust himself. His heart is in walking with God; but he knows that even his whole strength is not enough to keep him right unless his King shall be his keeper, and he who made the commands shall make him constant in obeying them.

Charles Spurgeon

A whole lifetime is not long enough to appreciate fully the beauty and learning and value of the Bible. That's why we must take time to study its truths and make them real in our lives.

David Egner

It is not our promises to the Lord but His promises to us that will give us victory over sin.

Warren Wiersbe

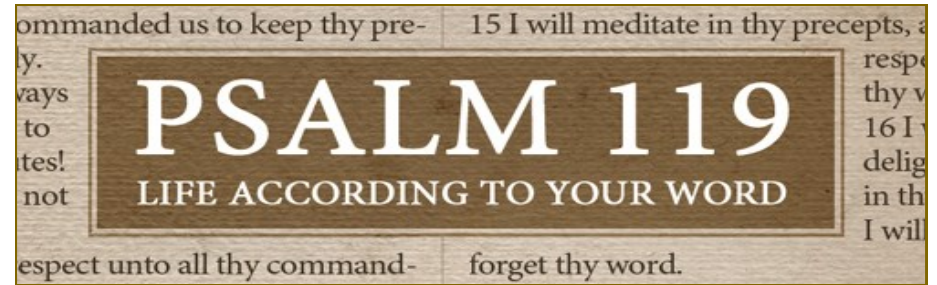

When we make the Scriptures the subject of our conversation, we glorify God, we edify our neighbors, and we improve ourselves.

George Horne

Value the unspeakable blessing of Divine teaching, by which you learn to live the life, and begin the blessedness of God.

Obedience is not a burden, but a delight. The servant may perform the statutes of God; but it is only the son who delights in them.

Charles Bridges
