

Reflection Questions: Do I truly desire God's Word over everything else? What can I do to value it more? Am I praying as David did in this psalm? Why or why not? Are my words and meditations acceptable to God?

How can we pray for one another and our church this week?

Quotes to Ponder

Though all preachers on earth should grow silent, and every human mouth cease from publishing the glory of God, the heavens above will never cease to declare and proclaim His majesty and glory. They are for ever preaching; for, like an unbroken chain, their message is delivered from day to day and from night to night.

August Tholuck

So complex a universe demands a Creator who can do anything, who knows everything, and who is present everywhere.

God's voice of power in creation prepares the way for His voice of grace in the Gospel.

Warren Wiersbe

Two things fill the mind with ever new and increasing wonder and awe, the more often and the more seriously reflection concentrates upon them: the starry heaven above me and the moral law within me.

Immanuel Kant

He is wisest who reads both the world-book and the Word-book as two volumes of the same work, and feels concerning them, 'My Father wrote them both.'

Charles Spurgeon

There is no conflict whatever between the testimony of nature and the testimony of the Word of God.

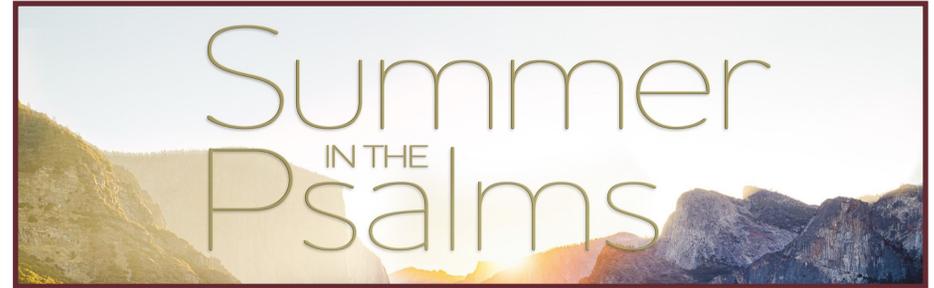

Harry Ironside

Because the Scriptures are the Word of the Lord—the communication and revelation of the living God—they have effects on us that are better than the effects of anything else we can read or study or watch or listen to.

John Piper

If our Rock were not our Redeemer, we should be without hope. If our Redeemer were not our Rock, still might we be afraid. It is good that we never forget the mutual interpretation of these two revelations of God.

G. Campbell Morgan

Psalm 19

Sermon
Notes

June 13, 2021

1. God's Revelation in His World (1-6)

2. God's Revelation in His Word (7-11)

3. God's Revelation: Our Response (12-14)

1. What in the text/sermon impacted you most? Encouraged you? Convicted you? Challenged you? Confused you? Comforted you?

2. How does God communicate with man about Himself according to Psalm 19:1-6?

What can be clearly communicated in this way?

What are the limits of this communication?

3. How are people who have not heard the words of the gospel still responsible before God to know of His existence (Romans 1:18-22)?

4. Compare Psalm 19:1-6 with Psalm 8. What do you see?

5. If the heavens are telling of the glory of God (Psalm 19:1), what about hurricanes, tornadoes, windstorms, etc.? How do they tell of God's glory? Why does He allow them to be so destructive?

6. How does God communicate with man about Himself according to Psalm 19:7-10?

How does this differ from the communication in verses 1-6?

7. Compare Psalm 19:7-14 with Psalm 119. What do you see?

8. How is God's revelation described in Psalm 19:7-9?

What does God's Word do according to these verses? How does it do this?

9. What do the following verses add to David's words of what God's Word does for us (Psalm 19:7-11)?

Psalm 30:5 —

Isaiah 40:8 —

Proverbs 12:6 —

Romans 10:17 —

Isaiah 40:8 —

10. What does God do according to Psalm 19:11-13?

11. What is the great reward of Psalm 19:11? Explain.

12. What specific things did David ask the Lord to do for him (Psalm 19:12-14)?

13. How does Philippians 4:8 answer the prayer of Psalm 19:14?

14. Define errors, hidden faults, presumptuous sins, and great transgression (Psalm 19:12-13).

15. How does David view God in Psalm 19:14? What is meant by this?

16. What message of hope do you take from Psalm 19?