

16. What is the list of actions (43-48) which characterize someone who is biblically trusting in God's Word (42)?

Reflection Questions: Am I obeying God out of duty or out of privilege? Why? Is sin or holiness my bondage? Do I love God's Word as the psalmist did? How can I increase in my love for God's Word? Do I tell others about God's commands and God's love? If I love God and His Word, how can I not tell others about him?

How can we pray for one another and our church this week?

Quotes to Ponder

Salvation is an aggregate of mercies, incalculable in number, priceless in value, incessant in application, eternal in endurance.

Saints find no bondage in sanctity. The Spirit of holiness is a free spirit; He sets men at liberty and enables them to resist every effort to bring them under subjection. The way of holiness is not a track for slaves, but the King's highway for freemen.

Charles Spurgeon

Why then is the Bible read only—not meditated on? Because it is not loved. We do not go to it, as the hungry man to his food, as the miser to his treasure. The loss is incalculable.

Let us seek for a deeper impression of redeeming love. This will be the spring of grateful obedience and holy delight. Let us turn our complaints into prayers, and the Lord will quickly turn them into praises.

Charles Bridges

Law and liberty are not enemies. They are coworkers in your life to build character and to bring joy.

William Varner

The Word of God is the expression of the love of God to us and it should result in love from our hearts to the Lord, to His people, and to the lost. God's Word shares God's promises, and promises always imply future hope.

Warren Wiersbe

God's lovingkindness is the Divine Love condescending to His creatures, more especially to sinners, in unmerited favor.
